OREGON PARALYZED VETERANS OF AMERICA IS PROUD TO ANNOUNCE PARALYZED VETERANS AWARENESS WEEK APRIL 11-17, 2010

Salem, OR– In honor of Paralyzed Veterans Awareness Week, Oregon Paralyzed Veterans of America is launching The Adventures of the Bean Family coloring book and coloring contest beginning Monday April 12, 2010. The Adventures of the Bean Family is the first of its kind. This unique coloring book has activities and a story to help teach families that they can overcome obstacles that are unexpected. This coloring book is the first of a series that will address many different issues that families face today.

Oregon Paralyzed Veterans of America is partnering with Elephant's Trunk and the Salem Center Shopping Mall located at 480 Center Street NE Salem, OR 97301. The first 500 coloring books purchased from Elephant's Trunk will have a coloring contest sheet for a chance to win a free bike. The coloring contest begins on April 12, 2010 and runs through May 3, 2010.

On April 12, 2010 we will be at Yoshikai Elementary School located at 4900 Jade Street NE Salem, OR 97305 and on Tuesday April 13, 2010 we will be at Queen of Peace Catholic School located at 4227 Lone Oak Road, SE Salem, OR 97302 to introduce the coloring book and contest.

None of this would have been possible without the support of our sponsors:

Elephant's Trunk, Chinook Winds Casino Resort, Salem Center, Amramp, Star Builders, Bi-Mart, R&J Mobility and VIP Card. Visit vipforvets.com to support Oregon Vets.
